The Gordon Highlanders Museum

Where History Meets Hospitality

Set in the heart of Aberdeen's West End, The Gordon Highlanders Museum celebrates the extraordinary legacy of one of the British Army's most famous and distinguished regiments. With a rich military heritage, beautifully landscaped gardens, and fascinating exhibits to explore, our award-winning museum offers a welcoming and truly unique setting for events of all kinds.

Whether you're planning a team away-day, conference, private dinner or business meeting, our versatile venue blends historic charm with modern facilities and a high standard of service. With a range of indoor and outdoor spaces available, we provide a memorable backdrop and professional hospitality tailored to your group and its individual requirements.

Hosting your event here with us also means more – as it supports the ongoing preservation of our museum and helps the next generation discover the story of The Gordon Highlanders.

Conferences & Business Meetings

The Gordon Highlanders Museum offers a professional and characterful setting for your next business event, board meeting, seminar or conference.

An inspiring space with rich heritage, our Regimental Gallery provides a distinctive alternative to standard business venues and is sure to be appreciated by your colleagues, clients and delegates.

Our service covers every detail — from quality catering and presentation facilities, to complimentary parking and WiFi. The quiet setting, attentive service and excellent hospitality make The Gordon Highlanders Museum ideal for focused discussion, strategic thinking and engaging presentations — far removed from the usual boardroom, but with the same standards of discretion and comfort throughout.
